WHISTLEBLOWER PROTECTION POLICY

General

College of Southern Maryland Foundation's (The Foundation) Code of Ethics (Code) for Board directors and Senior Management, approved July 22, 2008, requires directors, officers and employees to observe high standards of business and personal ethics in the conduct of their duties and responsibilities. As employees and representatives of the Foundation, we must practice honesty and integrity in fulfilling our responsibilities and comply with all applicable laws and regulations. This whistleblower protection policy is being implemented to comply with the Public Company Accounting Reform and Investor Protection Act of 2002 (Sarbanes-Oxley).

Reporting Responsibility

It is the responsibility of all directors and foundation and CSM employees to comply with the Code and to report violations or suspected violations in accordance with this Whistleblower Policy.

No Retaliation

No director, or employee who in good faith reports a violation of the Code shall suffer harassment, retaliation or adverse employment consequence. An employee who retaliates against someone who has reported a violation in good faith is subject to discipline up to and including termination of employment. This Whistleblower Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees and others to raise serious concerns within the Foundation prior to seeking resolution outside the Foundation.

Reporting Violations

The Code addresses the Foundation's open door policy and suggests that directors and employees share their questions, concerns, suggestions or complaints with someone who can address them properly. In most cases, the Vice President of Advancement/Foundation's Executive Director is in the best position to address an area of concern. However, concerns can be forwarded to the college's CSM Foundation Chair, General Counsel or CSM President. Directors and employees are required to report suspected violations of the Code of Conduct to the Vice President of Advancement/Foundation's Executive Director and/or the CSM Foundation Chair who have specific and exclusive responsibility to investigate all reported violations. For suspected fraud, or when you are not satisfied or uncomfortable with following the Foundation's open door policy, individuals should contact the Vice President of Advancement/Foundation's Executive Director and/or the college's General Counsel directly.

Compliance Officer

The Vice President of Advancement/Foundation's Executive Director or the college's General Counsel is responsible for investigating and resolving all reported complaints and allegations concerning violations of the Code and shall advise the Foundation’s Audit Committee. The Vice President of Advancement/Foundation’s Executive Director has direct access to the Audit Committee of the board of directors and is required to report to the Audit Committee at least annually on compliance activity.

Accounting and Auditing Matters

The Audit Committee of the board of directors shall address all reported concerns or complaints regarding corporate accounting practices, internal controls or auditing. The Vice President of Advancement/Foundation’s Executive Director shall immediately notify the Audit Committee of any such complaint and work with the committee until the matter is resolved.

Acting in Good Faith

Anyone filing a complaint concerning a violation or suspected violation of the Code must be acting in good faith and have reasonable grounds for believing the information disclosed indicates a violation of the Code. Any allegations that prove not to be substantiated and which prove to have been made maliciously or knowingly to be false will be viewed as a serious disciplinary offense.

Confidentiality

Violations or suspected violations may be submitted on a confidential basis by the complainant or may be submitted anonymously. Reports of violations or suspected violations will be kept confidential to the extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct an adequate investigation.

Handling of Reported Violations

The Vice President of Advancement/Foundation’s Executive Director or the college’s General Counsel will notify the sender and acknowledge receipt of the reported violation or suspected violation within five business days. All reports will be promptly investigated and appropriate corrective action will be taken if warranted by the investigation.
